

FOUR TALES TAROT

Welcome to the guide on Tarot card spreads, which focuses exclusively on the Major Arcana cards.

Imagine holding a deck of cards that act like a magical mirror, reflecting the deepest truths of your life. Each card is a story, full of symbolism and mystical meanings, waiting for you to uncover. Working with the Major Arcana is a journey through inner and outer worlds, allowing you to understand yourself and your place.

Tarot, used for centuries as a tool for self-discovery, reflection, and predicting the future, consists of two main parts: the Major Arcana and the Minor Arcana. The Major Arcana are given special significance because they represent the main archetypes and key stages of life's journey.

When we work with the Major Arcana, we come into contact with the essence of Tarot, rich in archetypal images and deep meanings. Each of the 22 cards in this group reflects fundamental aspects of human experience and carries powerful energy and insight into the most important aspects of life, from the Fool symbolizing new beginnings, to the ultimate achievement of wholeness and unity in the World card.

Working with the Major Arcana allows for deep analysis and understanding of significant life issues, making these cards an exceptionally powerful tool for spiritual insight.

Why is it sometimes beneficial to work exclusively with the Major Arcana? Focusing on them allows for a deeper connection with one's inner self and understanding of the universal truths and patterns that guide our lives.

In this guide, we will present various Tarot card spreads that use only the Major Arcana. Each of these spreads is designed to provide specific answers and guidance in key aspects of life – from understanding personal challenges, to exploring relationships, to discovering one's life path.

We invite you to explore the mysteries of the Major Arcana and embark on an inspiring journey of self-discovery that will help you delve into the deepest corners of your soul and understand how these archetypal energies manifest in your daily life.

Important before we move on to discussing the spreads using the Major Arcana cards:

1. Understanding the Major Arcana Cards:

- Familiarize yourself with the symbolism and meaning of each Major Arcana card. Each card represents a unique aspect of human life, emotions, experiences, or spirituality.
- Consider what questions or issues you want to explore using Tarot. Remember that the Major Arcana cards can provide profound insights and guidance on various topics.

2. Choosing a Tarot spread

- Choose a spread that best fits the questions or issues you want to explore. Spreads can range from simple three-card layouts to more complex ones involving a larger number of cards.
- Ensure that the spread is tailored to the scale and complexity of the question. Some questions may require deeper analysis and a greater number of cards.

3. Interpreting the Cards:

- When interpreting the Major Arcana cards, pay attention to their significance in the context of the question or issue you're addressing.
- Consider both the visual symbolism and intuition. Often, Major Arcana cards have multi-layered meanings that can be interpreted in various ways.
- Try to connect the meaning of individual cards within the context of the entire spread to gain a fuller understanding of the situation.

4. Reflection and Further Action:

- After completing the spread, consider the message of the cards and what insights you can draw from the interpretation.
- Think about what actions or steps you can take based on the guidance received. Tarot can serve as a tool for self-discovery and personal development.

5. Practice and Patience:

- Using Tarot cards, especially the Major Arcana, requires practice and patience. The more time you dedicate to working with the cards, the deeper understanding you will achieve.
- Be open to intuition and your own impressions while using Tarot cards. Your intuition can be a valuable guide in interpreting the cards.

Tarot Card Spreads for Three Cards:

Past, Present, Future:

- The first card is interpreted as the influence of the past on the current situation.
- The second card reflects the present, the current state of affairs.
- The third card indicates the potential development of the situation in the future.

Issue, Solution, Outcome:

- The first card identifies the problem or difficulties.
- The second card indicates potential solutions or strategies.
- The third card predicts the possible outcome or result.

Body, Mind, Soul:

- The first card represents the physical or material aspects of the question.
- The second card pertains to the mental, intellectual, or emotional aspects.
- The third card symbolizes the spiritual or metaphysical dimensions.

Threat, Opportunity, Outcome:

- The first card shows potential threats or challenges.
- The second card reveals an opportunity or a way to deal with the situation.
- The third card presents a possible outcome or result.

Aspirations, Rejection, Approach:

- The first card signifies desires or goals.
- The second card indicates what needs to be rejected or let go of in order to achieve those goals.
- The third card points to the appropriate approach or behavior.

Capacity, Barriers, Opportunities:

- The first card describes the potential or abilities.
- The second card identifies barriers or limitations.
- The third card indicates available opportunities or paths to utilize.

Classic Trio:

- The first card represents the present or current state.
- The second card pertains to the past or past influences.
- The third card indicates the future or potential development.

Life Choice:

- The first card symbolizes one option or path.
- The second card represents another option or path.
- The third card points to the ultimate outcome of the choice.

Life Path:

- The first card depicts the beginning or birth.
- The second card symbolizes life's challenges or experiences.
- The third card represents the goal or ultimate outcome of life's journey.

Path of Development:

- The first card describes the present or starting point.
- The second card points to the direction of development or evolution.
- The third card symbolizes achievement or the final state.

Spiritual Support:

- The first card represents spiritual guidance or support.
- The second card relates to spiritual challenges or inner conflicts.
- The third card symbolizes harmony or inner peace.

Strength and Perseverance:

- The first card depicts strength or inner power.
- The second card represents challenges or difficulties.
- The third card symbolizes perseverance or triumph over adversity.

These spreads enable a deeper understanding of various aspects of life and provide guidance on how to deal with situations or make decisions, using only the Major Arcana cards.

Of course, there are many different Tarot card spreads that can be performed using only the Major Arcana cards. Here are some additional suggestions:

Sun, Moon, Stars:

- The first card symbolizes clarity, optimism, and growth.
- The second card represents emotions, intuition, and the subconscious.
- The third card pertains to dreams, hopes, and striving towards goals.

Beginning, Middle, End:

- The first card describes the beginning or initiation of the situation.
- The second card depicts the development or main stage.
- The third card indicates the conclusion or outcome.

Challenge, Transformation, Achievement:

- The first card symbolizes difficulties or challenges.
- The second card represents the process of transformation or change.
- The third card pertains to achievements or successes.

Lesson, Trial, Redemption:

- The first card indicates lessons to be learned or a message.
- The second card describes a trial or challenge that must be overcome.
- The third card symbolizes redemption, forgiveness, or a new beginning.

Words, Actions, Outcome:

- The first card represents thoughts, ideas, or communication.
- The second card pertains to actions, decisions, or steps taken.
- The third card indicates the outcome, effect, or consequences.

Closure, New Beginning, Fulfillment:

- The first card symbolizes the ending or completion of a certain phase.
- The second card represents a new beginning or new opportunities.
- The third card pertains to fulfillment, achievement, or development.

Of course, there are also more complex Tarot spreads that use only the Major Arcana cards. Here are a few examples of such spreads:

Personal Development (Five Cards):

- First card: Current personal state.
- Second card: Challenges or difficulties the person may be facing.
- Third card: Aspects the person should focus on for growth.
- Fourth card: Inner strengths or powers the person can rely on.
- Fifth card: Potential achievements or development in the future.

Three Stages of a Project (Seven Cards):

- The first three cards: The planning phase of the project.
- The next three cards: The implementation phase of the project.
- The final card: The completion phase and evaluation of results.

Understanding the Situation (Six Cards):

- The first three cards: The current situation or state.
- The next three cards: Hidden or unobvious aspects of the situation that are worth considering.

Career Choice (Five Cards):

- First card: Interests and passions.
- Second card: Skills and talents.
- Third card: Professional opportunities or career paths.
- Fourth card: Potential challenges or obstacles.
- Fifth card: Predicted achievements or successes in the given career.

Spiritual Development (Seven Cards):

- The first three cards: Current spiritual state.
- The next three cards: Potential challenges or obstacles on the path of spiritual development.
- The last card: Achievements or growth that can be attained through further spiritual work.

These more complex spreads allow for a deeper dive into various aspects of life, projects, or personal development, using only the Major Arcana cards of the Tarot.

Using the Major Arcana cards in Tarot spreads can be a fascinating and enlightening experience. Remember, these cards are tools for understanding deeper aspects of human life and can provide guidance on personal development, self-discovery, and decision-making.

The author and publisher of the "Four Tales Tarot" deck is: www.taroteca-studio.com